Timeline of activities:

To ensure that results are disseminated in a timely fashion, we ask that you provide updates of your progress on the product at manuscript meetings. With regard to manuscripts: we expect that a first draft of the manuscript will be completed within 6 months of receipt of the data or evidence showing significant progress. If a draft is not received or significant progress is not evident, then the Principal Investigator (and/or designee) will determine appropriate next steps including reassigning lead author role.
